

IN EASTERN IDAHO,
WE KNOW OUR

SNOW

SKIING, SNOWBOARDING, AND SNOWMOBILING DESTINATIONS IN EAST IDAHO

PRESENTED BY

PHOTO CREDIT: KELLY CANYON SKI RESORT FACEBOOK

KELLY CANYON SKI RESORT

Located just 30 minutes northeast of Idaho Falls, Kelly Canyon Ski Resort has been a go-to destination for outdoor fun since 1957. With a welcoming, family-friendly atmosphere, the resort offers year-round activities for all ages, including skiing, biking, delicious dining, and rental gear. Renowned for its night skiing, Kelly Canyon provides a one-of-a-kind winter experience, with nearly two-thirds of the mountain illuminated for evening adventures.

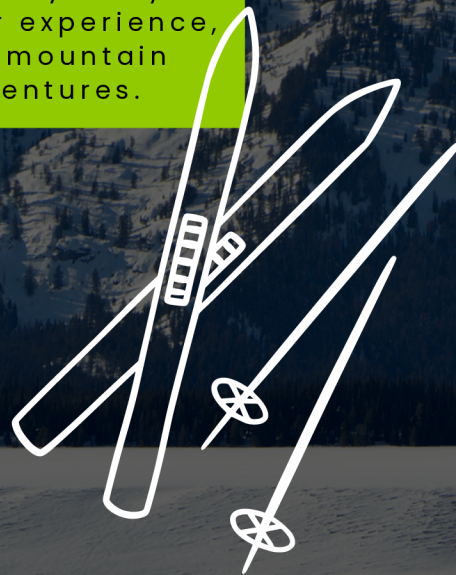

PHOTO CREDIT: PEBBLE CREEK SKI AREA FACEBOOK

PEBBLE CREEK SKI AREA

A short drive from Pocatello, Idaho, Pebble Creek Ski Area is perched on Mt. Bonneville in the Portneuf Range. With a variety of terrain suited for both beginners and seasoned skiers, it's an ideal winter getaway. After a day on the slopes, a stop at the legendary Rock Bottom Saloon for some après-ski food and drinks is a must. And if you're not ready to leave just yet, you'll find plenty of family-friendly lodging options are available nearby.

PHOTO CREDIT: GRAND TARGHEE RESORT WEBSITE

GRAND TARGHEE RESORT

Grand Targhee Resort, located on the Idaho-Wyoming border near Driggs, Idaho, is renowned for its average of over 500 inches of snowfall annually, making it a prime destination for skiers and snowboarders. While the resort is primarily in Wyoming, many visitors start their journey in Idaho. In summer, it offers hiking and biking trails, stunning views, and various outdoor activities. With its laid-back vibe and beautiful alpine scenery, Grand Targhee provides a memorable experience for outdoor lovers year-round.

PHOTO CREDIT: LOST TRAIL SKI AREA FACEBOOK

LOST TRAIL SKI AREA

Lost Trail Ski Area, located at 7,000 feet on the Montana-Idaho border, is a family-friendly ski resort known for its exceptional snowfall and affordability. Established over 80 years ago, it offers a welcoming atmosphere away from commercialized resorts, featuring five double chair lifts, three rope tows, and over 60 trails suitable for all skill levels. Open Thursday through Sunday and on holidays, it remains a popular destination for powder enthusiasts seeking great conditions and a genuine mountain experience.